Tangier – Chefchaouen – Volubilis – Meknes – Fes (Surface-400 km)

Walking Level: Active

Highlights: Chefchaouen, Volubilis, Bab El-Mansour

Transfers: Tangier to Fes

After breakfast, drive towards Fes, passing through three important cities—Chefchaouen, Volubilis, and Meknes.

The first stop is Chefchaouen, the famous Blue City, known for its picturesque streets and serene atmosphere. As you walk through its immaculately clean alleys, you'll experience a calm and refreshing ambiance, making it a standout destination in the tourism world.

Next, visit Volubilis, an ancient Mauritanian capital founded in the 3rd century B.C. This Roman outpost flourished with magnificent structures and remains one of the richest archaeological sites in North Africa. Its remarkable ruins and epigraphic evidence provide a rare glimpse into the grandeur of the Roman Empire, preserved with a high degree of authenticity due to centuries of isolation.

Finally, explore Meknes, a quieter yet historically significant city that remains underappreciated despite its imperial heritage. Here, you'll visit Bab El-Mansour, the grandest of Morocco's imperial gateways. Discover the king's vast granaries and stables, Heri es-Souani, and wander through the Medina and Jewish Quarter,

Enjoy breakfast at the hotel. Begin your day exploring the old part of Fes, a paradise for craftsmen where time seems to stand still. Wander through its bustling souks and charming alleys to admire the city's architectural marvels, from adobe and brick walls to intricate zellige mosaics and serene patios.

Your journey includes a visit to the Karaouine Mosque & University, one of Africa's largest mosques and possibly the oldest university in the world, serving as the spiritual heart of Fes and Morocco. Another highlight is the Medersa Bou Inania, considered the finest theological college in Fes, where you'll have the chance to explore its remarkable interiors.

No visit to Fes is complete without stopping at the Tanneries, one of the city's most iconic sights and scents. Here, witness the centuries-old leather-making process, a tradition unchanged since medieval times.

Other fascinating stops include the Nejjarine Fountain and the Moulay Idriss Grave, significant landmarks of Fes. At the end of the day, you'll return to your hotel, enriched by the city's rich history and vibrant cul
